Dr. Williamson will give a lecture and lead a discussion on the book of Ecclesiastes, hearing it as a classic voice from the past calling us to see life honestly and live every day like it is a precious gift. “To everything, there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven.” Reception and book signing to follow.

The following morning, September 16, he will preach at Govans at both the 9:00 and 10:45 a.m. services and lead adult education at 10:00 a.m.

"Radical Hospitality: At Mercy Community Church"

He will be discussing the ministry of Mercy Community Church in Little Rock, at which he is the founding pastor, and how it has changed his understanding of what it means to follow Christ. Mercy Community Church is a worshipping community that extends welcome to those living on the streets. Their mission statement is “Because we believe Jesus Christ welcomed all people, so do we.”
