Health and Wellness

Save Your Vision Month (March) aims to increase awareness about good eye care and encourages people to get regular eye exams. With computers becoming an everyday part of people's lives, the risk of eye strain and damage is higher than ever.

African American eye health at a glance

- More than 825,000 African Americans have diabetic retinopathy
- African Americans are at higher risk for glaucoma at a much younger age than other populations
 - Nearly 190,000 African Americans have low vision
