Church History Facts: May

The Pastor ship of Rev. Loyce Fredrick Lacy began in April 1958 at the Gardner Street location. On April 18th of 1988, Pastor Lacy announced his retirement after an extended illness. On June 5, 1988 Pastor Lacy preached his farewell sermon. He challenged the Church to pray and stay together in preparation for a new leader. On July 23rd of that year a retirement program and reception was held honoring Pastor Lacy for leading the congregation for thirty years. Rev. Gonzer Lee Gist served as Interim Pastor for one year. During this time the leadership of Union Chapel had put in place a team of seven members to begin the process of searching for the person God had anointed to serve as the next Pastor. The members of the Pulpit Search Committee were: Sister Joyce Campbell, Brother Emanuel Coleman, Sister Betty Craighead, Deacon James Ector, Deacon Frank Hester, Sister Betty Pope, and Deacon Eddie Thomas. We thank God for the committee and the members of Union Chapel Church as they were led by the Holy Spirit in the selection of their third Pastor, Rev. Obie Wendell Davis of Gulfport, Mississippi. Pastor Davis is now in his thirty-fourth year of giving service to Union Chapel Church and the Huntsville Madison County Community. We thank God for his leadership and service!
