LEVITICUS
OUTLINE 2
January 25, 2023

“The special days of the Tabernacle” (Exodus 23:14-17; 31:12-17; 34:18, 21-26;
35:1-3; Leviticus 16:1-34; 19:30, 23:1-44; 25:1-24; 26:2)

- I. 1. The Sabbath day (Exodus 31:12-17; 34:21; 35:1-3; Leviticus 19:30; 23:1-3; 26:2): Israel is commanded to rest on the seventh day and keep it holy. Those who desecrate it are to be put to death. The Sabbath is intended to remind Israel of two things (Exodus 31:17):
 - a. God created the world in six days and then rested.
 - b. God has a special relationship with Israel
2. The Sabbath year (Leviticus 25:1-7): Israel is to let the land rest from cultivation every seventh year.
3. The Year of Jubilee (Leviticus 25:8-24): Every fifteenth year all public and private debts are to be cancelled and all land returned to the original owners.
4. The Passover (Leviticus 23:4-5): This festival occurs on the fourteenth day of the first month. It celebrates Israel’s deliverance from slavery in Egypt after the angel of the Lord passed over the homes marked with blood on the doorposts.
5. The Festival of Unleavened Bread (Exodus 34:18; Leviticus 23:6-8): This festival begins on the fifteenth day of the first month. For seven days no bread made with yeast is to be eaten. All Israelite males are required to be present at the Tabernacle during this festival.
6. The Festival of First Fruits (Leviticus 23:9-14): During this festival, the Israelites are to offer a portion of their first crops of the harvest as well as a year-old lamb with no physical defects. All males are required to be present at the Tabernacle during this festival.
