Who But God Can Heal a Heart

When sorrow comes, we sometimes feel As though our hearts will break, And through the long and lonely nights We often lie awake... The friends who brought us so much joy Through bright, untroubled days Bring little comfort, though they try In many special ways... The hours pass so slowly That a week seems like a year, And we feed on thoughts and memories So precious and so dear, How foolish, but how human too, To think our loss must be The end of joy in life  $\sim$ ~If only we could see~ That SOMEONE watches over us And understands our pain, SOMEONE whose presence Means we do not weep in pain... His strength, His care, His guidance Are a deep and endless well; His heart is always open To the things we need to tell... And with His help we find the will To make a fresh new start, For who but God, in His great love Can heal a troubled heart?

Edna Louise Fletcher, (affectionately known as "Lou"), of Huntsville, Alabama, transitioned to her heavenly home on Saturday, May 20, 2023, at Crestwood Medical Center, surrounded by family and loved ones. Lou was born on August 19, 1939, in Athens, Alabama to the late Jimbo and Ollie B. Fletcher. She had ten siblings and was preceded in death by five.

Edna graduated from Trinity High School in Athens, Alabama Class of 1959. She continued to show diligence and commitment working ambitiously throughout her life at Lerner, Mallory, and SCI, until she found a home with GE, where she remained for 16 years until her retirement.

Edna was no stranger to letting her sparkle shine. As a young woman, she gleamed as she toured the country as the Mistress of Ceremonies for the Athens Community Choir from 1960 to 1964. Edna found Christ at a young age, and her light continued to shine when she joined the Union Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in 1974. As a member, Edna served as a dedicated part of the Usher Ministry and Senior Adult (SAM) Ministry and was a resident church hat aficionado.'

Edna was loved deeply and will be immensely missed by her family. Remembrance of Edna will be treasured by her loving children Dorothy "DJ" Fletcher, Charles "Charlie" Fletcher, LaVonder "Annette" Fletcher, George "Bubba" Suggs (Leasa) of Huntsville Alabama; grandchildren Terry Fletcher, Sequin Martin (Dereke), Paisley Samone, Dominique Fletcher all of Huntsville Alabama; siblings Martha Fletcher of Athens Alabama, Bonnell Fletcher and Billie Fletcher of Huntsville Alabama, Lawson Fletcher of Moulton, Alabama; sisters-in-law Shirley Fletcher of Athens Alabama, Mable Fletcher of Nashville Tennessee; great-grandchildren Kyler Rose, Jania Fletcher, Paige Fletcher, Dallas Craig, Dylan Fletcher, Hendrix Craig, Damir Fletcher, and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, life-long friend Vivian Kelley and other special friends.

A Tribute of Love

My prayer is that I show others the awesome love that you have shown to me. My prayer is to become the mother and grandmother that you are to your children and grandchildren. My prayer is always to stand bold and go hard for the ones that you love the most. My prayer is to wear an invisible tall hat and hold my head high just like you did. My prayer is to never fear death, but live life to its fullest. The experience of becoming a daughter in-law and sister in-law has been a blessing and I wouldn't change it for any other family! Thanks for everything! ~Your daughter in-law forever, Leasa~
