Obituary

Respectful, kind-hearted, and well-mannered. These three words perfectly describe the personality of Marlon Cordell Pleasure. The beloved, loving and eldest son of the late Mr. James W. Pleasure and Mrs. Sadie Turner Pleasure passed away too soon from a vehicle accident on Saturday, May 25, 2024, in Huntsville, Alabama.

Marlon was born on July 4, 1971, in New Jersey. He was reared in a Christian home, and he confessed Christ as his Savior at an early age; joined Union Chapel Missionary Baptist Church; and was baptized by the late Reverend L. F. Lacy. Under Pastor Lacy's pastoral leadership, he participated in Sunday School and Baptist Training Union (BTU). He was educated in the Huntsville City Schools and graduated from J.O. Johnson High School, where he was an active athlete participating in basketball and football. Following graduation from high school, Marlon attended Alabama A&M University. He later joined the United States Navy and served his country for three and half years.

Marlon was an industrious young man who held several positions with key responsibilities at companies in the Huntsville-Madison County area. He adamantly believed in performing job tasks with excellence and producing quality products for the company. A man of grit, he welcomed new opportunities and completed assignments with honesty and integrity. At the time of his death, he was employed as a finisher with BASF/ECMS Company in Huntsville, Alabama. In the community, he participated in the YMCA sports programs, playing baseball and basketball. His hobbies included bowling, playing and watching sports on television, as well as attending athletic events in various settings.

Marlon possessed strong values and was well liked by many because of his positive demeanor, humble spirit and ample energy. He had incredible patience, and always made time to help others. His laughter will continue to echo through his home, a melody of happiness that will forever resonate in the memories of family and friends.

He was predeceased by his father, James W. Pleasure, and brother, Stacey Lashay Pleasure. He leaves to cherish his many memories a dear mother, Sadie Turner Pleasure; loving fiancée, Kaisha Mitchell; surrogate daughter, Dalyce Ervin; caring niece and nephew, Precious LaShay Pleasure and Jaeshaun Lashay Pleasure, and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family and friends.
