Local Industry NEWS & NOTES

People on the Move

Coldwell Banker appoints president — Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage named Max Thompson as president.

Thompson was the company's former executive vice president for Utah. In his new role, Thompson will manage the operations of its 16 offices along Utah's Wasatch Front.

Thompson replaces Dave Mansell, who is retiring after 34 years in the real estate industry. In 2001, Mansell oversaw the merger of three of Utah's most successful real estate companies — Wardley, Coldwell Banker Premier and his own company, Mansell & Associates.

Thompson is also past president of the Utah Association of Realtors and has served on the board of directors for the National Association of Realtors.

Health Care

Orem dental hygiene college to open this fall — The Utah College of Dental Hygiene in Orem, which will become the state's largest dental hygiene program, is scheduled to open this fall.

The school, which is currently accepting applications for the Fall 2005 class, will accept 48 students per year, three times more than some of Utah's existing programs. The college is accredited by the American Dental Association and the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges of Technology.
